BOLD CABERNETS PAIR

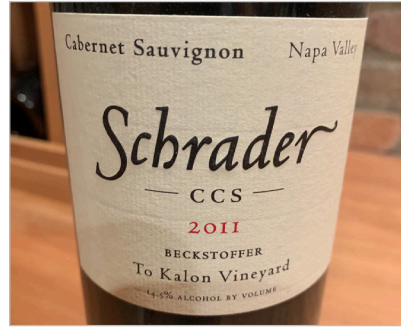

2011 SHAFER - CABERNET SAUVIGNON HILLSIDE SELECT

Retails for $240/bottle

Wine Spectator | Rating: 93

Openly rich and plush, with a dense core of mocha-laced blackberry, charry oak, subtle spice, hot brick and cedary, earthy notes, this hints at a rustic character and is edgy at points, yet the core intensity persists. Ends with drying tannins.

2011 SCHRADER - CABERNET SAUVIGNON T6 BECKSTOFFER TO-KALON VINEYARD

Retails for $225/bottle

Wine Spectator | Rating: 93

Tight, dense and layered, with red berry, blackberry, anise, floral, cedar and mineral notes that lend this a wide range of lingering flavors. Perhaps the most complex and aromatic of the 2011 Schraders. Drink now through 2023. 160 cases made.

Donated by Doug Millowitz.

STARTING BID: $225

SILENT AUCTION

BIG REDS PAIR

2010 KAPCSANDY FAMILY - ENDRE - STATE LANE VINEYARD

Retails for $75/bottle

Wine Advocate | Rating: 94

The 2010 Endre (53% Cabernet Sauvignon, 43% Merlot and the rest Petit Verdot and Cabernet Franc aged in both French and Hungarian oak) is very Bordeaux like. Notes of bouquet garni, red and black currants and loamy soil are present in this medium-bodied wine that seems to be a faster evolving effort than its siblings. With excellent texture as well as an elegant style, and I use that word in a positive sense, it should drink well for 10-15 years.

2013 SINE QUA NON MALE CALIFORNIA SYRAH

Retails for $300

Robert Parker's Wine Advocate, 98 Points

Like with the 2013 Grenache, I was thrilled to be able to taste the 2013 Syrah Male again (twist my arm), and it continues to impress. Giving up fabulous blackberry, bouquet garni, peppery herbs and minerality, this full-bodied, beautifully textured, concentrated and layered Syrah has ultra-fine tannin, impeccable balance and a great finish. It needs 2-4 years of cellaring and will see its 20th birthday in fine form.

Donated by Doug Millowitz.

STARTING BID: $250

PERFECT REDS PAIR

BLANKIET PARADISE HILLS VINEYARD PROPRIETARY RED 2012

Retails for $230

Robert Parker's Wine Advocate, 96 points

The serious 2012 Proprietary Red Paradise Hills Vineyard is composed of 81% Cabernet Sauvignon, 16% Merlot and dollops of Cabernet Franc and Petit Verdot. This wine tips the scales at 14.4% alcohol, not all that high in such a ripe year. Aromas of barbecue smoke, graphite, blackberries and crème de cassis are followed by a wine with silky tannins and a long, opulent, full-bodied finish. This terrific 2012 is surprisingly drinkable at an early age for a Blankiet wine. Enjoy it over the next 15-20 years.

2013 POTT WINE KALIHOLMANOK CABERNET SAUVIGNON

Retails for $150

93+ Robert M. Parker Jr.

It's opaque purple with notes of white flowers, blue and black fruits, licorice, espresso roast and a touch of barrique, it is full-bodied, heady and rich.

Donated by Doug Millowitz.
